Washington, April 25.—The revised tariff bill will be presented to the Senate Thurs. GIVES DEALERS A CHANCE. Big Republicans Working to Committee has nearly completed its labors. One or two schedules are yet to be deter. He Has Received a Certified mined upon, but the bulk of the work has been completed. The new bill is a most thorough revision. Mr. Dingley and his colleagues will not recognize it when they see it. Changes of the most radical kind have been made. The free list is almost a new one. It will be the most remarkable open yesterday, but there was an air of Changes in the Free List.

The free list, in which is the most radical changes, will be much larger than the one proposed by Mr. Dingley and his associates, it has been made up along the lines of free raw material. Nearly all bases of articles which are themselves taxed, are to be adultted free of duty. The committee has all along been opposed to cumulative duties. A large number of articles placed in the dutiable list by Mr. Dingley have been put on the free list by the Senibal schedule. The Dingley bill impassed duties on essential offs and other bases used in many manufactures. These duties have been put on the free list by the Senibal schedule. The Dingley bill impassed duties on essential offs and other bases used in many manufactures. These duties have been proved.

Hanna's confidential managers admit that such a scheme is being worked, and they are doing what they can to thwart it. Hanna is alarmed at another matter. A month ago be gave out the edict that the Republican State Convention should not be held until after the passage of the tariff law. He wanted the convention to indorse the law and to ascribe all honor to McKinley, Hanna & Co. In addition he wanted the convention to indorse himself

AYOR STRONG has approved the Ford bill, providing for the extension of Riverside Drive to Boulevard Lafayette. This improvement will cost about $2,000,000. The grade will be lowered from a point near the Grant Monument to One Hundred and Ewenty-seventh street, and from there a viaduct will be built. This will extend from One Hundred and Twenty-seventh to One Hundred and Thirtyfourth street, across the Manh ttanville valley. From about One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street the city will acquire a strip of land varying in width from 150 to 300 feet, and on the easterly side of this strip the drive will be extended. The westerly portion of the purchased land is to be turned into a park, reaching down to the railroad tracks. At One Hundred and Fifty-third street the drive will turn westerly across the property of Trinity Cemetery and over the Hudson River Railroad tracks. on a viaduct and skirt the river. A sharp easterly turn will be made at One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street, and the roadway will be continued up through Audubon Park to the junction with Boulevard Lafayette.
